

Register now for Digital Parenting Week

Digital Parenting Week is all about celebrating parents and all the hard work they do. It takes place from 26-30 October and we want you to join us for it. Register to show your support and download your free ideas pack.

Google and Parent Zone are delighted to launch a series of digital drop-ins about the online world – on everything from Cyberbullying to Sharing Carefully.

We asked you to tell us what Be Internet Legends could help you with – and then developed the livestreams based on your answers!

Delivered on YouTube and led by Parent Zone's experienced team, digital drop-ins take a 360° look at a specific topic, offering

Practical strategies if you're concerned

Activities for families who just want to learn more

Learning points from Be Internet Legends

Signposting to other resources and games.

If you're a teacher, please share any of these links with your school community using your channels.

If you're a parent, feel free to join us whenever you like. Each session is 30 minutes long, totally free and accessible on YouTube.
